

Strike Against Ford May Be Long, Tedious

By DWIGHT PITKIN

DETROIT (AP) — United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther met with top Ford Motor Co. negotiators today in an effort to hammer out settlement of a strike that has shut down Ford plants across the nation.

Reuther and Malcolm L. Denise, a Ford vice president for labor relations, met for 30 minutes. Top-level negotiations then were recessed until 2 p.m. to allow sub-committees to work on language involved in national noneconomic matters and local-level disputes.

Ford's 120,000 hourly production workers walked off the job Tuesday after negotiations broke down on a national noneconomic contract. Bargainers had reached agreement on wages and benefits. Still unsettled are local issues at many key plants.

Reuther said he was suggesting to Ford that national and local settlements on working conditions be placed in one package so as to end the strike without setting another deadline on local issues.

Denise, commenting on Reuther's proposal for combining local and national issues, said, "We have been working on local issues and will continue to work on them."

Ninety-six days of negotiation failed to bring agreement and the 120,000 production workers walked out. Ford operates 8 plants in 26 states. Half of its employees and 32 of its plants are in Michigan. Normally about 30 per cent of all autos sold in this country are Ford products.

Malcolm M. Denise, Ford vice president labor relations and top management negotiator, said that "the issues on which we are in dispute are of great importance. Based on outward appearance we have a considerable distance between us."

UAW President Walter P. Reuther said the union did all it could to avoid the strike, saying, "We have been at the table for 95 days, more than adequate time to settle our problems, but we didn't even clear up the details of our economic agreement until 8 a.m. Tuesday."

The economic package closely paralleled the union's agreement with General Motors, reached two weeks ago.

Stumbling blocks are: Production standards, especially working conditions on moving assembly lines; representation (the union wants more full-time, company-paid committeemen in plants); lines of demarcation in the skilled trades; outside contractors (the right of the company to farm out certain specialized work); and special issues involving the Ford steel plant in Dearborn, Mich.

Rev. Mr. Bell Tells Experiences

The Rev. Clifford Bell recalled 25 years of memories as a U. S. Army Chaplain which took him to all parts of the world, in a talk Tuesday before Hope Kiwanis Club.

Rev. Bell was preparing a religious service at Pearl Harbor when the Japs struck there on Dec. 7, 1941 and 16 years of his service in the Army were spent in foreign countries.

A former pastor of First Christian Church of Hope, he is now State Chaplain of Foreign Wars, and was presented on a program arranged by Olin Lewis.

Edward Baker was introduced as a new member, bringing the membership to 65. Guests were Jack Grey of Shreveport and George Walden of Hope.

Taxpayers Suit Against Mena Judge

MEINA, Ark. (AP)—A taxpayers suit charging Polk County Judge Roy Stockton with using county equipment to compete against private enterprise has been filed in Chancery Court.

The suit, filed by Harold Berg and Bill Cunningham of Mena, contends Stockton rented and loaned county labor and equipment to private citizens.

Charles R. Garner, an attorney for Berg and Cunningham, labeled Stockton's action illegal.

"If it costs a contractor $4 to haul a load of gravel and the county does it for $2? Who you going to let do it?" Garner asked. He added, "How can a contractor stay in business and how can the county stay in business?"

Garner, who said Berg is a contractor, indicated he will seek a temporary injunction to halt Stockton from using the equipment in the manner outlined by the suit.

The suit also seeks to have Stockton account for the money he allegedly received for the use of the county property.

Stockton declined to comment.

Police Guard Schools at Memphis

MEMPHIS (AP) — Wary police kept a watch today on four public schools where Negroes and whites sat together in integrated first grade classes.

About 50 officers, hilly clubs in hand, walked patrols in the school areas. Earlier, special night guards watched for possible "dynamite protests."

The city's Century-old racial segregation in public schools was cracked Tuesday when 13 Negro 6-year-olds were assigned to white schools.

Police Commissioner Claude Armour said no incidents were reported. He said the special assignment of 200 officers to the school guard patrols would continue "until we are convinced there is no possibility of violence."

The special patrols forced all 600 men in the department into 12-hour shifts. Armour estimated the overtime pay cost to the city at about $5,000 a day.

William D. Galbreath, president of the city Board of Education, said no violence was expected in the face of police precautions. "If we have any trouble it will be a school boycott," he said.

A few brave parents withdrew their youngsters from school Tuesday as soon as they heard about the desegregation move, which was prepared in near secrecy by the school board.

A news blackout on the admission of Negro pupils was not lifted until a few hours before school bells rang. Many residents didn't know anything unusual was going on until late in the day.

Tropical Storm Appears Brewing

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Tropical Storm Frances became a hurricane today. The Miami Weather Bureau reported it had 75 mile per hour winds. It was 550 miles east of Miami, moving north-northwest.

Frances offers no threat to the U.S. mainland, the bureau said. The hurricane was moving at 13 m.p.h.

Irregularities of Vote Probed

MORRILTON, Ark. (AP) — The Conway County Grand Jury, considering alleged election irregularities in last summer's Democratic primary among other matters, recessed today until 2:30 p.m. Monday.

The jury heard four witnesses today and six Tuesday. Grand jury proceedings are secret.

Witnesses who appeared before the jury Tuesday included Gene Wiggins, editor of the Morrilton Post; Virgil Polite, an unsuccessful candidate for mayor, and three members of the County Better Government League, Dr. Harold Hyder, Dr. Charles Wells and Wade Outes.

Wiggins and the league have complained about alleged election irregularities.

Circuit Judge Audrey Strail, empaneling the jury Tuesday, ordered it to investigate several allegations of law violations, including the election matter.

Road Bids Total Over $3 Million

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Highway Commission today opened bids on eight road and bridge jobs and another on radio equipment. Bids totaled $3,155,099.

The largest job was reconstruction of 9.29 miles of Highway 167 between Farinade and Cross Roads in Dallas and Grant counties. The Hobbs A. Sims Division of W. R. Fairchild, Ltd., Farmerville, La., submitted an apparent low bid of $1,079,099 on this work.

General Electric Co. of Little Rock had a low bid of $65,997 on transmitting and receiving equipment needed to get the Highway Department's statewide radio system into operation.

Other road jobs by counties with apparent low bidders and their bids follow:

Miller—9.00 miles of surfacing on Highway 71 between Fouke and Texarkana; McMillin-Burkett Construction Co., of Texarkana, Tex., $713,092.

Miller—Three miles of surfacing on Highway 134 from Garland City west; J. Lester Booker Co., Little Rock, $135,555.

Union — Reconstruction of 5.9 miles of Highway 167 from Junction City north; Reynolds and Williams, Little Rock, $654,970.

Columbia—3.8 miles of surfacing on Highway 160 between Macedonia and Taylor; H. C. Cathey Construction Co., Camden, $187,035.

Union — 4-mile of additional frontage roads on the El Dorado east bypass of Highway 167; J. Lester Booker, $37,302.

Craighead — Reconstruction of 3.68 miles of Highway 63 from the Pointsett County line northeastward; D. F. Jones Construction Co., Little Rock, $283,378.

Craighead—Two bridges and approaches on Highway 141, one over Los Creek in Jonesboro and the second over Crystal Spring Creek north of the Highway 1 junction; Mississippi Valley Contracting Co., Paragould, $64,668.

Broshier Service at 4 p. m. Today

Final rites for William Broshier, 60, who died Tuesday at Little Rock, will be held at 4 p.m. today at Herndon-Cornelius Chapel by the Rev. Rufus Sorrells. Burial will be in Memory Gardens.

Another Big Nuclear Blast by Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union fired a big nuclear explosion today, described by the Atomic Energy Commission as "on the order of several megatons."

A megaton is the equivalent of one million tons of TNT.

This was the 17th atomic explosion by the Soviets since they resumed testing Sept. 1.

The explosions have ranged in several sizes.

One on Sept. 14 was also described by the AEC as of several megatons.

In response to a question, an AEC official said today's shot was not necessarily the largest yet fired by the Russians.

The shot took place in the arctic region in the vicinity of Novaya Zemlya. It was fired in the atmosphere.

W. L. Reese, 80, McCaskill, Dies on Monday

William Levi Reese, age 80, of Rt. 1, McCaskill, died Monday in a Prescott hospital. He was a farmer and served as an elder of Bulls Chapel Church of Christ for 25 years.

Survivors include his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Wella Mae Hooker of El Dorado, a son, Dexter David Reese of Springdale; a brother, Estes Reese of El Dorado; three sisters, Mrs. W. F. Latham of Seney, Mrs. Nathan Lamb of Delight and Mrs. Joe Wilson of El Dorado.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the Bulls Chapel Church of Christ with M. H. Peebles officiating, assisted by Wallace Alexander. Burial was in Murfreesboro Cemetery under the direction of Latimer Funeral Service of Nashville.

Anti-Red School in Shreveport

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — A five-day anti-communist school is in progress here for 15,000 high school students from Louisiana, Texas and Arkansas.

At the opening session in the youth center at the Louisiana State Fair Grounds Tuesday anti-communist speakers said American youth is one of the prime targets of the communist conspiracy.

Roscoe White, Caddo Parish school superintendent, said the morning crowd of more than 10,000 white students was the largest listening audience ever assembled in Shreveport. More than 5,000 students from Negro schools attended the afternoon session.

The speakers included Dr. Fred Schwarz of Australia, president of the Christian Anti-Communist Crusade and director of the school, and Herbert Philbrick, author of "I Led Three Lives."

Astronaut Reportedly Seasick

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet astronaut Gherman Titov was somewhat seasick during most of his 25 hours in orbit around the earth, Soviet scientists reported today.

They said preliminary indications were that the nausea was the result of extended weightlessness.

In a paper for presentation to the International Astronautic Federation O. G. Gizenko and V. J. Yanzlovsky of the Soviet Academy of Sciences noted that neither U.S. astronaut Alan Shepard, who spent five minutes under conditions of weightlessness, nor Soviet astronaut Yuri Gagarin, who endured zero gravity for more than an hour, noted any comparable disturbances.

One of the medical questions raised by the prospect of space travel has been whether the human system could endure long periods without the familiar effects of gravity.

The paper said Titov retained "a sufficient level of working capacities" at all times and his principal bodily functions were not harmfully affected. However, it continued, he felt during weightlessness unpleasant sensations associated with the ear chamber. Balance is regulated in the inner ear.

These sensations became stronger and stronger during the flight, especially when Titov turned his head sharply or was observing swiftly moving objects.

For some time after Titov woke from his nap the sensations decreased, but they did not disappear until he began to feel the spacecraft's deceleration on its return into the atmosphere.

"Thus, the sensation of some discomfort accompanied the considerable portion of the flight and resembled seasickness," the paper said.

Red Minister, Kennedy to Meet Friday

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko will confer Friday on the Berlin situation.

The White House announced the expected appointment time today. Presidential press secretary Pierre Salinger declined to go into the nature of subjects to be discussed.

The conference was arranged as a followup to those in New York between Gromyko and Secretary of State Dean Rusk seeking to determine whether there are prospects for fruitful East-West negotiations to settle the Berlin dispute.

Salinger said the Kennedy-Gromyko meeting was arranged by the State Department. He declined to say whether the initiative came from the Russian or American side.

Speculation on Future House Leader

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Who will be the speaker of the House of Representatives if Sam Rayburn does not return when Congress reconvenes next Jan. 10?

That question arose naturally today as Rayburn, 79, remained on the serious list at Baylor Hospital, awaiting results of medical tests to determine the nature of his illness.

Should it become certain that Rayburn's health won't permit him to return, there would be several months for potential speaker candidates to organize a campaign. It would take a lot of organizing in view of existing conditions.

When Rayburn left the speaker's House temporarily a month before the House adjourned, Rep. John W. McCormack, D-Mass., took over as speaker pro tem. McCormack had been majority leader, a position from which previous speakers traditionally have advanced to the top House job. McCormack still is majority leader, but he has temporarily assigned leadership duties to Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma, the Democratic whip.

As speaker pro tem and majority leader, McCormack would have "a leg up" to replace Rayburn on a permanent basis. He has been Democratic leader since 1949 except for four years when Republicans controlled the House. Rayburn was party leader during those four years.

McCormack's leadership position has given him an opportunity to build an organization which would be hard to topple in a few months. Any challenger might well run the risk of political oblivion if he lost, for the speaker can go a long way toward making or breaking a party member in the House.

Mentioned prominently as a possible successor to Rayburn is veteran Rep. Francis E. Walter of Pennsylvania, who may reconsider his recently announced decision not to seek re-election. Walter has a strong following among Southern Democrats. As chairman of the controversial Un-American Activities Committee, Walter probably would lose the support of some liberal Democrats who disagree with the committee. At 67, he is younger than McCormack, who will be 70 next Dec. 21.

A political donnybrook could develop over the majority leadership if McCormack vacated that post to become speaker. Southerners would claim the leadership if the speakership went to a Yankee, either McCormack or Walter. There are plenty of potential candidates from Southern and border states.

Albert of Oklahoma would rate the inside track by virtue of being acting leader as well as party whip. He is serving his 15th year in the House, is one of its more popular members and has strong Southern backing.

Other Southerners whose names crop up in speculation over the leadership assignment include Hale Boggs of Louisiana, Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas and Albert Rains of Alabama. Richard Bolling of Missouri, a border state, also has been mentioned.

The party leader is chosen at a Democratic caucus. Each party also chooses its own delegate for speaker and the entire House does the electing. The party in control invariably elects its man.

Russia Forced to Report a Crop Failure

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union has disclosed a virtual crop failure in Kazakhstan and the virgin lands. This may have a considerable effect upon both domestic and international policies.

Pravda reports that delegates to a Communist party meeting in the central Asian republic "spoke with great seriousness about the fact that this year Kazakhstan cannot give the state much grain."

The first secretary of the Communist party in Kazakhstan, D. A. Kunayev, said: "We must report to the Congress (the 22nd Congress of the Communist party, meeting here Oct. 17) that we do not cope with our task in the production of grain. We cope with our tasks completely unsatisfactorily."

Last year Kazakhstan and the virgin lands also had a disastrous harvest. The first secretary, Nikolai Belyaev, was fired from his local job and from his top job on the Moscow Presidium.

The development of the virgin lands is a pet project of Premier Khrushchev, who sees those vast reaches of central Asia as a means of overtaking the United States in food production.

By all accounts, the harvest in western reaches of the Soviet Union is not much better.

The crop setback may have its influence on foreign policy. On the international front, the Soviet Union almost always lowers its demands when there is a bad harvest since, unlike the United States, it has no reserves on which to fall back.

Pravda blamed both bad weather and faulty techniques for the harvest failure.

Accidents in State Fatal to Five

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five persons were killed in separate accidents in Arkansas Tuesday.

Two lost their lives in traffic accidents, one was run over by a tractor, one was killed in a truck-train collision and one was electrocuted.

Lloyd Harold Whiteside, 20, was killed and his wife burned when the television antenna they were installing at their home near Charleston fell against a power line.

Leonard L. Bogard, 66, of Curle, was killed when his pickup truck and a Rock Island Railroad passenger train collided at a Curle grade crossing.

Ten-year-old Tommy Johnson of Hoxie fell from a tractor on which he was riding and was crushed beneath the rear wheels.

Leon Harding, 8, of Sherrill, was struck by a car and killed as he crossed state Highway 15 north of the Jefferson County town.

State Police said the driver was Casper P. Sonderman, 22, of Memphis.

Edgar Fletcher Wilson, 53, of North Little Rock was killed when the car in which he was a passenger overturned after going out of control on state Highway 14 about one mile south of Newport.

Yankees Down Redlegs Behind Ford's Hurling

NEW YORK (AP) — Whitey Ford whitewashed the Cincinnati Reds with a sparkling two-hitter today and Elston Howard and Bill Skowron blasted home runs to give the New York Yankees a 2-0 victory in the opening game of the 1961 World Series before 62,397 fans in Yankee Stadium.

Ford, who won 25 games for New York during the season and lost only four, was in excellent form as he struck out six and issued only one walk winning his eighth World Series game. It was his third straight series shutout. He blanked Pittsburgh twice in 1960.

O'Toole, a left-hander like Whitey, was almost as stingy for three innings, giving up only two singles.

Then Howard rocketed his fifth World Series homer into the right field stands in the fourth to break the scoring ice. Skowron's seventh series home run in the sixth inning went into the left field seats and that was the scoring for the day.

Eddie Kasko's single in the first inning and Wally Post's single in the fifth were the only Cincinnati hits off Ford.

Two right-handers are scheduled to pitch Thursdays game — Ralph Terry for the Yanks and Joey Jay for the Reds.

Roger Maris, the Yankee slugger who belted 61 homers for a one-season major league high, failed to get a hit in four trips. He popped out to short, struck out, grounded to first unassisted, and fouled to the catcher behind the plate.

Titan Worker Asks Fund Accounting

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Two construction workers on an Arkansas Titan missile complex asked Pulaski Chancery Court Tuesday to order an accounting of funds supposed to have gone to the International Brotherhood of Teamsters.

The suit was brought by John James Shourd and J. W. Couch, identified in the suit only as employees on the project.

The suit charged that membership dues paid by workers on the Titan missile complex did not go to the Teamsters Union but were placed, instead, in a separate fund.

Listed as defendants were S. W. Johnston, John L. Cannon, J. Carl Dicus Sr., Lloyd Brammer and W. C. Henderson. No addresses were listed.

Plaintiffs alleged the five had wrongfully taken money from the separate fund for the unions which they represent, but the suit did not list the union affiliations of the defendants.

The suit asked an injunction to prevent further diversion of funds and an accounting of funds already paid.

Chancellor Guy E. Williams issued a temporary restraining order and set a hearing for Monday.

Missile Launched Off of Ship

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)

An advanced A2 model Polaris missile scooped more than 1,500 miles today after a successful shipboard launching that paves the way for initial firings from a submarine.

Compressed air shot the compact solid-fuel missile from a vertical tube in the deck of the USS Observation Island as the ship cruised in the Atlantic Ocean about 40 miles southeast of here.

The success, announced by the Navy, ended a string of three failures for A2 model Polaris launched from the Observation Island. Lockheed aircraft, which makes the missile, found the trouble and the good shot today indicated technicians have solved the problem.

Weakening of Army Decided Syria Revolt

By DAVID LANCASHIRE

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Information Minister Mustafa Baroodi announced today the revolutionary army has rounded up saboteurs hired from abroad to infiltrate Syria.

The announcement, broadcast by Radio Damascus, hinted the saboteurs were hired by President Nasser of the United Arab Republic, against which Syria revolted last week.

Broadcast communiques reported the lifting of all curfews, the return of the army officers who organized the revolt to their regular military jobs, and the arrest of "suspected persons who had infiltrated the country."

Baroodi then took the microphone to declare "these three communiques announce the crushing of saboteurs, who were hired by those who claim Arabism."

He said they could have come from several groups—the Communist party, the proscribed Greater Syria party or former right-wing organizations. In 1957, before the merger with Egypt, large numbers of Syrians were sentenced in absentia on charges of plotting to overthrow the government.

The new Syrian army commander said Nasser's agents had moved "like an octopus to weaken the Syrian army, suffocate freedom of citizens and fill prisons."

Gen. Abdel Karim Zahredin told reporters Tuesday that was the reason the Syrian army rose against Nasser's United Arab Republic last week and forcibly severed Syria's 2½-year-old ties with Egypt.

Zahredin also accused Cairo agents of stealing millions of dollars worth of Syrian arms and equipment for shipment to Egypt.

He said Nasser's intelligence officers filled Syria's prisons with political prisoners and stifled individual liberties.

"The army's only aim was to redress wrongs and it was pledged not to interfere with the political life of Syria," he said.
Informed sources said that one lowed to see him briefly. With him for periodic visits were his two sisters, Mrs. W. A. Thomas of Dallas and Mrs. Robert Barley of Bonham, Tex.

Rayburn was brought to the hospital unexpectedly Monday night after failing to respond to normal treatment for what had been publicly described by his office as lumbago.

He left Washington for a rest at his home in Bonham, miles from here, a month before Congress adjourned.

Warns U. S. Against New Action

By GEORGE BOULTWOOD

BERLIN (AP) — Marshal Ivan
S. Konev, commander of Soviet forces in East Berlin, has warned the U.S. Army commander in Europe against taking any action that might upset prospects of East-West talks on Berlin.

This was announced Tuesday night by a Soviet Embassy spokesman. There were reports the tough, aging marshal was complaining about the resumption of U.S. military police patrols on the autobahn linking West Berlin with West Germany — 110 miles away.

The Soviet spokesman said Konev's letter was sent to Gen. Bruce
C. Clarke, commander of the U.S.
Army in Europe, under whose orders the patrols were resumed
Sept. 23 after a nine-year lapse.

The patrols were resumed after two U.S. soldiers were detained on the autobahn for six hours by East German Communist police.

The action was, in effect, a warning to East Germany to keep hands off U.S. military traffic to Berlin.

Konev took the line that any undue steps by U.S. authorities might rock the boat and ruin prospects for a peaceful settlement of the Berlin issue, the Soviet spokesman said.

Former commander of the Warsaw Pact armies, Konev was pulled from retirement for the East German assignment in August after tension rose over Berlin and the Soviet threat to sign a separate peace treaty with East Germany. Such a treaty, the Soviets warn, would place Allied lifelines to Berlin under the control of the East Germans.

A U.S. Army spokesman at Clarke's Heidelberg headquarters confirmed that the general had received a message from Konev and had answered it.

A Navajo Indian purposely weaves imperfection into a blanket believing creation of a perfect design would mysteriously end his career as a weaver.

way Nasser weakened the Syrian army was to send several dozen Syrian officers to Communist countries as students. They said Syria now has demanded their prompt return.

Interior Minister Adnan Kuwaly told newsmen the new Syrian regime had found a large number of political prisoners but had been unable to come up with an accurate count. Premier Mamum Kuzbari estimated the number at about 30,000.

Kuwaity said the dreaded internal security system at one time had about 6,500 secret agents with a monthly payroll of about one million Syrian pounds — $2,800,000.

Syria will continue its ban on the Communist party, Kuwaity said, adding that "we will leave the question of political parties to Parliament."

Boy Trapped in Cave Is Rescued

RISING FAWN, Ga. (AP) —

Rescue workers, inching their way through a treacherous mountain cave, brought to the surface about dawn today an injured teenaged boy who had been trapped overnight.

The youth, Ronnie Reese, 15, did not appear to be in serious condition from his ordeal. He was taken to a nearby hospital.

"We had to have an awful lot of help from the man upstairs to get this boy out," commented weary Charles McGuire, chief of operations of the Civil Defense rescue unit from Chattanooga, Tenn., about 30 miles northeast of this remote, mountain section of Georgia.

Reese fell into a crevasse in the cave shortly after dark Tuesday while he, his brother, Byron, and two other teen-age boys were exploring the cave near the top of Fox Mountain.

He was trapped on a ledge 50 feet below the cave's main floor about 10 hours before rescue workers managed to bring him up. Then it took another grueling two hours to reach the cave exit, about a half-mile away.

Rescue operations were hampered by loose rocks and some big boulders around the top of the crevasse where Ronnie fell. Members of the rescue unit said they were frightened once when a few small rocks started falling. But no big ones tumbled down.

The boy was unconscious much of the time during the rescue operation.

Rescue workers swaddled him in padding, blankets and jackets and put a helmet on his head before they bound him to a stretcher for the trip outside.

They reported portions of the cave were so small that much of the time they had to pass the stretcher from one man to another. One of the men crawled out of the cave with the stretcher on his back.

Two Associated Press newsmen helped carry the stretcher the mile down the mountainside over the brushy, pine-thicket terrain to a truck.

At one time about 50 persons huddled around two fires, but when the rescue was completed only four men, including Ronnie's father, were on hand.

There were no cheers. Just relief.

Considers Polk Co. Quarantine

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Dr. Harvie R. Ellis, director of veterinary medicine for the state health Department, said Tuesday that a rabies quarantine may be imposed in Polk County. Ellis said four cows have died of rabies in the Cherry Hill community near Mena in recent days. He said two farmers who tried to treat the cattle were exposed to the disease and will require anti-rabies treatment. A rabid fox killed near Cherry Hill several weeks ago could be the source of the infection, Ellis said.

Rayburn Still in Serious Condition

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — House
Speaker Sam Rayburn remained on the "serious" list today at Baylor Hospital. His doctors hope to know Thursday just how serious his condition is.

A team headed by Dr. Robert F. Short, prominent Dallas surgeon, started a series of tests on Rayburn Tuesday. They said it would be 36 to 48 hours before they knew anything definite.

They declined to comment on a report from one of Rayburn's aides that an exploratory operation may be performed.

"This man is in serious condition, just how serious we do not know at this time," one of the doctors said privately.

Rayburn, 79, known as "Mister Democrat" to millions, was under heavy sedation. At times he hard-bill.

Husband Seeks Greener Pastures

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My 13 years of married life has had its ups and downs—mostly downs. My husband, though nearing his mid-30's, a respected citizen and the father of four little girls, still lets his eyes wander. Every time we go out he looks for greener pastures.

Our crowd is gay, we all enjoy swimming, dancing and dining parties but do you think my husband pays any attention to me on these occasions? No!

The following incident is typical. Last Sunday my family held their annual reunion. My husband took off with a third, or fourth, cousin whom I never laid eyes on before. She was young and pretty but is that any reason for bypassing me and the children, as if we were strangers?

Imagine my humiliation when one of my relatives yelled "Keep an eye on your old man!"

I admit, I show the wear and tear of married life; being overweight and not too good looking to start with but he's no pin up either. He works that "Young-at-heart" line overtime. For him, I'm just chattel. Is that marriage? —Depressed Wife.

Dear Depressed: Run, don't walk, to the nearest slenderizing salon. Count your calories. Lose weight or you'll lose your husband. A trim figure is more of an asset than a pretty face.

I wouldn't give two cents for a man who was blind to beauty. Make the pursuit of it a family affair. Set your little girls an example, encourage them to "pre-

Chaffee Gets First Batch of Soldiers

By AL DOPKING

FORT CHAFFEE, Ark. (AP)—The 100th Division is settled in this sprawling Army post that will be its home and is working feverishly to get ready for the first group of civilians it will turn into soldiers.

Oct. 19 is the target date for the arrival of the first 600 raw recruits. Maj. Gen. Dillman A. Rash, commander of the 100th, said he expects the training to reach a peak of 10,000 troops by Dec. 1.

This means the 100th whose sole job is training other soldiers will have to work fast to get ready a post that has been almost idle for two years.

A grueling infiltration course will be set up. Trainees will have to crawl under barbed wire for 100 yards while machine guns send a stream of live ammunition over their heads.

Col. Frank X. Murphy, commander of the 300th regiment, one of the field training groups, said the recruits would get eight weeks of what he termed very strenuous basic training.

The 3000 men of the 100th checked in Sunday. Rash said only about 10 per cent of them brought their families, but that was enough to cause a serious housing shortage in nearby Fort Smith.

The problem was being worked out with what the Army termed close cooperation from civilian agencies. Many of the 3,000 men came in private cars—about 1,200 of them. Many came as far as 780 miles and no accidents were reported.

The base hospital will not be in operation for about a month and the Army has made arrangements for a Fort Smith hospital to handle its cases.

The 100th, the first training division to be called up since the Berlin crisis prompted President Kennedy to beef up the Army, apparently traded civilian lives for Army routine easily.

One thing that made the change easier was the housekeeping job of the 4002nd Army Garrison from Ardmore, Okla., and Oklahoma City. It is operating Fort Chaffee, leaving the 100th free for training duties.

The 4002nd is in good position said its commander, Col. Adrain Fuller of Shawnee, Okla. It had used Chaffee both as a summer training camp and for its map problems. The 300 men of the 4002nd took over quickly, and Monday night, everyone had steak for dinner.

A plumbing problem was solved quickly. Some hot water pipes had become rusty and needed repair. Post commander Maj. Gen. William C. Bullock put his staff on the job. By Monday, 370 civilians had been hired, and many of them were plumbers. The utilities were operating by nightfall.

Gas heat was turned on Monday and officers who worked in chilly administrative buildings all morning shed their field jackets by afternoon. Rain and cold weather made the first day's work unpleasant, but apparently didn't hold up the work of the 100th or the 4002nd.

Rash said 97 per cent of the 10th's personnel had reported. Less than two per cent requested deferment. "We are proud to be the first training division to be called up," he said. It is one of 13 training divisions organized three years ago.

Families of most of the men will come from Kentucky within a short time. Rash said he liked for the soldiers to have their families with them if possible.

TCU Picked to Defeat Arkansas

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—There will be a full schedule of college football games this weekend despite the World Series. If you get too excited about the baseball, don't worry. Here are your football winners!
(Last week, 32 right, 15 wrong for .681. Season's average, .749)
Iowa over Southern California: This will occupy your TV screen after the Series game. Larry Ferguson, Hawkeye speedster, is injured but the Iowans still have too much for the once mighty Trojans.
Mississippi over Florida State: The Mississippians, like the river, just keep rolling along.
Georgia Tech over Louisiana State: a night contest. But the darkness won't hide Stan Gann's cleverness at quarterback for the Engineers.
Texas over Washington State: With ease.
Michigan State over Stanford: Stanford will furnish most of the excitement, but Michigan State provides the heavyweight tackles who will control the scoring.
Syracuse over Maryland: The Orangemen from New York could be in trouble if Ernie Davis hasn't completely recovered from his hurts.
Ohio State over UCLA: The Buckeyes' stingy defense will decide this struggle between the leaders of two powerful conferences.
Michigan over Army: The Cadets have given up their lonely end offense. They'll also give up the decision in this one.
Elsewhere:
Purdue over Notre Dame; Kansas over Colorado; Missouri over California; Texas Christian over Arkansas.

Fishing Around Arkansas Lakes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Here's a fishing forecast from the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission: Lake Maumelle: Water clear but low. All fishing fair on all bait.
Lake Hamilton: Water condition good. Black bass fair to good on artificial bait. Bream fair to good on crickets and worms. Crappie poor.
Lake Conway: Water clear and 3.5 feet low on dam. Bass fair to good on artificial bait and minnows. Bream fair on crickets and worms.
Lake Greason: Water clear but low. Largemouth bass good early and late while schooling, on top-water lures.
Lake Ouachita: All fishing poor to fair on all bait.
Lake Norfolk: Black bass good on crayfish; fair on plastic worms. Crappie fair to good trolling with artificial bait and minnows.
Lake Bull Shoals: White bass good early and late on Mr. Champ and live minnows. Large mouth bass fair on jigs and eels.
Lake Catherine: No report.

THE STORY: Mike Beecher,

a young American living in Spain, returns home after a self game to find a "fust waiting" for him. She is Laura Meadows, a friend of his sister. Beecher invites her to attend a party at Don Willie's house. The host is a German, a former Nazi.

Chapter III

When the drinks came, Don Willie asked Beecher if he could take Laura with him and introduce her to his friends. He laughed and patted him on the shoulder. "I do not steal your girl. But I have known, I mean, I have taught." He shook his head in frustration. "I have learned—ha, ha—that is it! I have learned the best thing is to cut all the couples up. It makes things go better, no?"

"You go ahead," Beecher said to Laura, who was watching him with a smile.

When they had gone into the garden, Beecher chatted with his Spanish friends, drifting from group to group toward the sound of music. He collected another drink from a passing maid. The Englishman, Lynch, waved to him. There was a crush of people between them and Lynch cried: "Glad you changed your mind about coming. A little dissipation will take the edge off your golf."

Beecher held up his glass. "I'm working at it," he said.

A girl in a white blouse and a full red skirt was standing alone at the swimming pool smoking a cigarette. It was Ilse, the young Austrian girl who lived with Don Willie. She turned at the sound of the footsteps and smiled at him.

"Hello, Mike."

"Hello, yourself. Brooding?"

"No, nothing like that. I was listening to the music, watching the sea. It's strange to see you here."

"I know." He felt uncomfortable. "There's a first time for everything, I guess."

"Why don't you like Don Willie he wants to be friendly with everyone?"

"It's nothing important," he said. "We just have a slight disagreement about the best uses for ovens and barbed wire. That's all."

"It's the war, then," she said slowly.

Ilse was about 22, he guessed, with a spare, childish body, and a delicate, impassive face. He was amused by her air of cynical wisdom.

Beecher said gravely: "Those are the only ones we let out of America. We keep the good-looking ones at home."

"Where they are cozy and safe? It would be nice to live that way."

"Why are you here, then?"

She looked up sharply, and a curl of her short black hair fell across her forehead. "You know why," she said, and pushed it away with a swift, angry gesture. Her eyes were like diamonds in her small pale face. "I live with Don Willie."

"Yes, I know that, Ilse," he said quietly.

"And you think it is disgraceful, don't you? Everyone here thinks so. You wonder why I am alone. The Spanish women pretend I don't exist. The foreign women are worse. They married rich men and worked them to death. If I painted my face and bought the right clothes I could go to the Riviera and find someone much better. Someone much older and nearer death. Then I could live as they do, with villas and young French lovers."

Beecher was distressed by her outburst. She seemed childish, and very vulnerable, with her thin wrists and unpainted fingernails, and hurt flaming in her dark eyes.

"People don't think about us as much as we imagine they do," Beecher said. "They've got problems of their own to worry about. Let's sit down and listen to the music. Or would you like to dance?"

"I would prefer to sit down," she said.

They sat on a low stone bench and Beecher put his drink on the ground and lit a cigarette. They were in the shadows of a buganvillea vine, but the lanterns filtered through the leaves.

She wore rope-soled slippers with string crisscrossed and tied about her slender ankles. Her legs seemed slim and pale and insubstantial in the flickering lantern light.

"You know, Ilse, if people thought about me they'd probably decide I was a bum," Beecher said. "Lazy, worthless, scared. But they don't waste their time that way."

She looked at him very gravely. "Why did you say you were scared?"

He shrugged. "Well, it follows, doesn't it? People who withdraw from the big scramble must be afraid of getting hurt. It's safe and comfortable on the sidelines."

"Stay safe and comfortable," she said. "You won't prove anything by getting hurt."

Don Willie came down the steps then with Laura and the Englishman, Lynch and his harsh gutturals fell across Ilse's soft voice with metallic finality.

"I must make my speech now," he was saying. "I welcome everyone, tell them to be happy, to eat and drink, there is plenty of everything."

Alworth Leads the Nation

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—University of Arkansas halfback Lance Alworth leads the nation's major college punt returners, statistics released by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau disclosed Tuesday.
Alworth has a 19.4 average for seven punts this far this season, 2.3 yards per carry better than his total last year.
SMU quarterback Harold Morgan leads in punting with an average of 41.4 yards per kick.
Bob Wilucki, Texas Tech end, is the leading pass receiver with a 9.6 yard per carry average.

New Clubs Offered Some Name Players

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Mets and Houston Colts, the two new National League baseball clubs, will be able to form their teams from a list that includes former league stars. The Associated Press has learned. The selections from the lists of 15 players made available by each of the eight established clubs will be made by Houston and New York the day after the World Series ends.
Although the lists are in the hands of officials of the Mets and Colts, they will not be officially disclosed by the league.
The AP has learned, however, that Roberts, Hodges, Schoendienst, Jones, Ashburn and Antonelli are on the lists together with such other name players as Clem Labine, Johnny Logan, Vinegar Bend Mizell, and Bobby Shantz of the Pittsburgh Pirates; Billy Loes and Eddie Bressoud of the San Francisco Giants; Norm Larker and Roger Craig of the Los Angeles Dodgers; and Pancho Herrera of the Philadelphia Phillies.
Cincinnati's current list, the AP learned, contains only the names of those not eligible for the World Series. It is reported that Gus Bell, Dick Gernert and Jay Hook may be among those made available once the series ends.

Unconscious Year Jap Girl to Die

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—A Japanese-American girl, unconscious for more than a year, is flying home to Tokyo where doctors say she soon will die.
Mira Oensel, 10, once a pert, peppy 68-pounder, has wasted away to 30 pounds since she was stricken with a brain tumor last year.
Doctors say she may not be strong enough to make the trip but her American father and Japanese mother want to reunite the family, if possible, while there still is time.
Flying with Mira is her mother, Takako Oensel, who has been at her bedside since last winter, praying and singing to the sleeping child. Mira's father, Frank Oensel, is a consulting engineer with an American firm in Tokyo. Born in Japan, Mira is an only child.
The tumor was discovered when Mira fainted while she and her father were visiting Georgia friends Sept. 7, 1960. Despite an

China Admits Series of Failures

By JOHN RODERICK

TOKYO (AP)—Red China admits failures in farm and factory and in the midst of its economic difficulties has turned to a study of the Soviet Union's "experiences in socialist construction."

These disclosures unfolded today from thousands of words of editorials and speeches during the just-concluded Oct. 1 celebration of the 12th anniversary of the Red regime's founding.

While studying Soviet experience in building its economy, Red China has emphasized it will continue the rural communes as advised by Soviet Premier Khrushchev as impractical.

Chinese officials report failures in agricultural production had a damaging impact on heavy and light industry and the nation's living standards.

Speeches and editorials made repeated references to difficulties brought on by natural calamities—drought, flood and typhoon—in the past three years.

Peiping earlier this year conceded that the grain harvest had been a bad one. But this was the first direct admission of the effect of crop failure on light and heavy industry and "the people's livelihood."

Essentially an agricultural country, Red China always has depended upon agricultural exports to get the machinery needed for industrialization.

The official Peiping People's Daily said: "While achieving great successes, we have encountered certain difficulties in the economy in our forward march and there have been certain shortcomings in our work."

It went on to say that this year has been one of great readjustment "to overcome the new discrepancy in the balance of the national economy."

The paper indicated there is a grave shortage of raw materials to feed the nation's growing industrial complex. It called for efforts to boost the production of light industry and handicrafts, the capacity of mining and lumber projects.

operation, she never regained consciousness. Oensel kept a bedside vigil until April, then he returned to his job and the mother flew here to be with the child.

Yanks Remain Solid Choice in the Series

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Menaced by threat of rain, the World Series is scheduled to start today with the power-packed New York Yankees reigning solid favorites over the Cincinnati Reds despite Yankee Mickey Mantle's doubtful status.

The Weather Bureau said a soaking rain which fell all Tuesday night tapered off by game time—at noon, EST—but there was a possibility the showers would continue until late in the day.

A postponement would push the opener back a day to Thursday and be a big help to Yankee Manager Ralph Houk, who then might be certain of the services of the ailing Mantle.

With, or without Mantle—recovering from surgery on an abscess on his right hip—the Yankees rule a 12-5 choice over the National League champion Reds, who have quiet confidence they can repeat the Pittsburgh Pirates' 1960 series upset of the favored Yankees in seven games.

If the weather is not too foreboding, a crowd of 69,000 will jam Yankee Stadium for the opener which will be telecast and broadcast nationally (NBC).

The pitching opponents will be lefties—Yankee Whitey Ford, the majors' top winner with a 25-4 record, versus Cincinnati's Jim O'Toole, who won his last eight decisions for a 19-9 record.

The Reds have been in the big town two days, but most of the news has been about Roger (Belt) Maris, the lame Mantle and Casey Stengel ex-Yankee manager who now bosses the new New York Mets. The Gotham attitude is that the Reds are in a pass.

That's the way Cincinnati Manager Fred Hutchinson and his collection of admitted "rejects" like it. The Reds opened the season as 60-1 National League pennant possibilities. They copied the flag by winning while every body else wondered how they could do it—without a hangup catcher or the hallowed formula of strength through the middle, except Vada Pinson in center.

White Houk went to great lengths to inform sports writers how the Yankees scrutinized scouting reports on the Reds, Hutchinson simply said, "We went over the Yankee lineup, it was just a routine thing you do for a World Series—we know the job we have to do and we'll try to do it."

Little Rock Hall and Fort Smith are favored to keep the only unbeaten records in the Big Nine Conference in Friday night's Arkansas schoolboy football games.

The two no aim for an Oct. 27 meeting in Little Rock for the key game of the league race.

Benton is expected to retain its top position in Class AA with an easy victory over Region 3AA doormat Mablevale.

Camden, Jonesboro and Springdale are favored in key Class AA games.

Here's the week's outlook:
Little Rock Hall 20, Blytheville 7. The gallant Chicks proved they had what it takes in a scoreless tie with tough Pine Bluff. But Hall has an excellent passer in Johnny Beard and will be much better than anything Blytheville has seen.

Fort Smith 13, Little Rock Central 0. The Tigers don't have an offense to match Fort Smith's, and they made too many mistakes against Hot Springs.

Pine Bluff 13, El Dorado 6. The best football game of the batch. El Dorado halfback Jerry Mooty has shown he can handle just about anybody and Pine Bluff will have to stop him to win.

Hot Springs 6, Texarkana 0. Hot Springs has put up a good fight against three good teams.

Van Buren 7, North Little Rock 6. After what Van Buren did to JAA strongboy Springdale, the Pointers are natural favorites.

And around Class AA:
Springdale 27, Fayetteville 13. The Bulldogs will oust Fayetteville despite win over Van Buren.

Another Hard Day for the Razorbacks

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—Another hard day on the practice field was in store today for the Arkansas Razorbacks as they continued preparations for their South west Conference opener against Texas Christian Saturday.

Coach Frank Broyles made some lineup change Tuesday. He moved end Jim John up to the second unit to replace Jim Grizzle, who dropped back to the Thundering Third. Tommy Brasher moved into the right guard slot on the number two unit while Tommy Polk dropped back to the third unit.

The Hogs got a scouting report on TCU from Wilson Matthews, Arkansas line coach.

Matthews said the Horned Frogs will field three teams Saturday, but he warned, "TCU is a big, strong aggressive team that goes for the big plays when they count."

Hamilton, 165½, New York, 6. Fresno, Calif. — Billy Thomas, 134, San Francisco, stopped Ben Medina, 139, Fresno, 7.

Benton 33, Mablevale 0. Goliath vs. David with a busted slingshot. Conway 13, Little Rock Catholic 0. Catholic hasn't scored in four games and Conway is tired of being pushed around (twice in a row).

Russellville 20, Morrilton 6. Russellville is 4-0 and a corner in 3AA. Morrilton has been too erratic.

Hope 13, Crossett 7. A guess. Could go either way.

Camden Fairview 12, Arkadelphia 7. Fairview to win its first.

Camden 19, Malvern 13. A good one. Malvern will be ready after a 26-20 triumph over Hope.

De Queen 6, Magnolia 0. Magnolia hasn't blossomed since its opener, a 6-6 tie with Malvern, and there is suspicion the Panthers have gone downhill.

Smackover 13, Homer, La. 0. Bucks roll on despite a rough, tough crew in Louisiana.
